Vocal Groove and the SUNY musicians performed in a concert at CPW's main campus in Rye Brook. The event started with Ollie Lowery reciting an original poem entitled, "Jazz Excites the World." This was followed by a concert that included famous standards such as "Unforgettable," "At Last" and "It's a Wonderful World."
